SAVE YOUR TIMERS

Tired of always looking up how much time your stew needs to simmer? Have certain workout plans already figured out? Save it all in this app and organize your time!

Create a new category for yourv timer or select one you have already created.

You will end up with a neat organized list of all your timers, so you can set them easily and fast.

Once you choose your timer, it will start showing the name and the expected finish time

Also you can either delete or edit a timer.

But most of all... enjoy the beatiful sound of being ready!
